A BRIEF HISTORY

OF THE

FIFTH AVENUE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH,

FROM ITS

ORGANIZATION IN CEDAR STREET, IN 1808,

WITH A

LIST OF THE PRESENT OFFICERS AND MEMBERS.

JANUARY, 1882.

PUBLISHED BY THE SESSION.

NEW YORK:
STEPHEN ANGELL, PRINTER,
354 Fourth Avenue.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE CHURCH.

THE origin of the Presbyterian Church, in the City of New York, is to be reckoned from the year 1707, when the Rev. Mr. McKemie, from Virginia, preached the first sermon, and baptized a child at the house of Mr. William Jackson, in Pearl Street, near the Battery. The first Presbyterian minister settled in New York was the Rev. Mr. Anderson, in 1716, who preached for three years in the City Hall. In 1719 the church in Wall Street was erected, aided by contributions made for that purpose in the colony of Connecticut and in Scotland. From that time to the year 1807 there continued to be but one Presbyterian Church, though this Church had erected two additional places of worship, the one in Beekman Street and the other in Rutgers Street, and maintained three co-pastors. A party in the meantime had become dissatisfied with the introduction of Watts' Psalms and Hymns, and had established themselves in Cedar Street, and settled the Rev. John Mason, from Scotland, as their pastor.

In the year 1806 it became difficult to procure seats in either of the Presbyterian places of worship. Many were dissatisfied with the system of co-pastors. The venerable Dr. Rodgers, the senior pastor of the First Church, favored the idea of erecting a new church.

On the fifth day of January, 1807, the following persons, attached to each other by various affinities, and convinced that a new Presbyterian Church might be sustained in this city, opened a subscription for that purpose, and appointed a building committee, with full powers to erect a house at their discretion, in Cedar Street, between Nassau and William Streets, and sell the pews at auction, (subject to a yearly assessment for the support of the Gospel,) to reimburse the subscribers:

Ebenezer Stevens, Selah Strong, Elisha Leavenworth, John Aspinwall, Levi Coit, Archibald Gracie, John Patrick, B. M. Mumford, Charles Richards, William Lovett, Najah Taylor, Nathaniel Richards, Benjamin Strong, George Griswold, Theodore Ely, Peter Duston, Oliver Wolcott, William Codman, William W. Woolsey, George M. Woolsey, John R. Murray, Elisha Coit, Elias Kane, John Coit, Joseph Otis, Lebbeus Loomis, Caleb S. Riggs, David G. Hubbard, Joseph Strong, Gurdon Buck, Stephen Whitney, Peter Morrison, James Robertson, William Bruce, Isaac Pierson, Joel Post, Hezekiah Lord, William Adams, Robert Halliday, Samuel Whittemore, Robert M. Steel, Samuel Mansfield, George

Pelor, Effington Silby, S. Denton, David Hosack, Mary Watson, Henry Whitney, Amasa Jackson, William Hall, John Ripley, Nathaniel L. Griswold, Andrew S. Norwood, John Hyslop, Robert Weir, Lemuel Wells, Jonathan Little, Humphrey and Whitney, Stephens and Ely, John Knox, John G. Warren, John Trumbull, Jonathan Lawrence, Lynde Catlin, William Nelson, Jr.

In the autumn of 1808 the pews in the church were sold at auction, for a sum exceeding the cost of the house and grounds, and the subscribers were repaid with interest.

On the 19th of December, 1808, the pew-owners met at the house of worship, and formed themselves into a Christian congregation, agreeably to the statute for incorporating religious societies in this State, and elected the following persons as trustees of the temporalities of the congregation:

Oliver Wolcott, Archibald Gracie, Lynde Catlin, Ebenezer Stevens, Selah Strong, Elisha Coit, Caleb S. Riggs, William Codman, and William Lovett.

Benjamin Strong was appointed Treasurer.

On the 28th of June, 1808, the congregation was received under the care of the Presbytery of New York.

In August of the same year, they chose the Rev. John Broadhead Romeyn, of Albany, to be their pastor.

On the 6th of November the house was dedicated to the worship of God, and the sermon on that occasion was preached by Dr. Rodgers, Senior pastor of the Collegiate Presbyterian Church in New York.

On the 9th of the same month Mr. Romeyn was installed pastor of the congregation, and on the 13th of the same month the following persons were regularly constituted a Church of Christ by the Rev. Mr. Romeyn, and entered into covenant with each other to walk in the fellowship of the Gospel, under the government and discipline of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and under the pastoral care of Mr. Romeyn:

Hugh Auchincloss, Samuel Darling, Thomas Darling, Elisha Ely, George Fitch, Archibald Gracie, William Hall, Jonathan Kellogg, Zechariah Lewis, Pelatiah Perit, Eliakim Raymond, Daniel Smith, Solomon Williams, Oliver Wolcott, Mary Carrington, Betsy Coit, Nancy Darling, Esther Gracie, Eliza Lewis, Ann Manwaring, Hannah Mudge, Nancy Otis, Lydia Richards, Jane Reid, Harriet Romeyn, Ann Todd, Mary Watson, Betsy Jackson.

Rev. Dr. Romeyn died on the 22d of February, 1825. On the 7th of December, 1826, Mr. Cyrus Mason, a student of the Princeton Seminary, and a licentiate of the Presbytery of New York, was ordained and installed pastor of this church.

After a few years the emigration from the lower to the upper part of the city, rendered it necessary to change the location of the church edifice, in order to preserve the identity of the congregation. The value of the property in the lower part of the city was so greatly increased by the demands of commerce, that private dwellings were very generally relinquished.

In the month of April, 1834, the Trustees purchased a new location at the corner of Duane and Church Streets, and appointed a building committee to erect a house of worship.

On the 13th of August, 1835, at a meeting of the congregation, Rev. Mr. Mason offered his resignation as pastor of the church, and the congregation voted to unite with him in requesting Presbytery to dissolve the connection. This was done at a meeting of Presbytery, Sept. 5, 1835.

Rev. George Potts, from the Presbytery of Mississippi, having received a call to become the pastor of the church, accepted the same, and was installed by the Presbytery of New York, on the 17th of May, 1836.

At a meeting of the congregation held March 18, 1844, Rev. Dr. Potts tendered his resignation, which was accepted. The usual application was made to Presbytery, and on the 16th of April, 1844, the relation was dissolved.

On the 25th of June, 1844, a meeting of the congregation was held, at which a call was voted to Rev. James W. Alexander, D. D., of the Presbytery of New Brunswick. The call having been accepted, he was installed by the Presbytery of New York, on the 3d of October, 1844.

At their annual meeting, in May, 1849, the General Assembly appointed Dr. Alexander to the Professorship of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government in the Seminary at Princton. This appointment was accepted by him, and Presbytery, after hearing the parties, decided to dissolve the pastoral connection on the 25th of June, 1849.

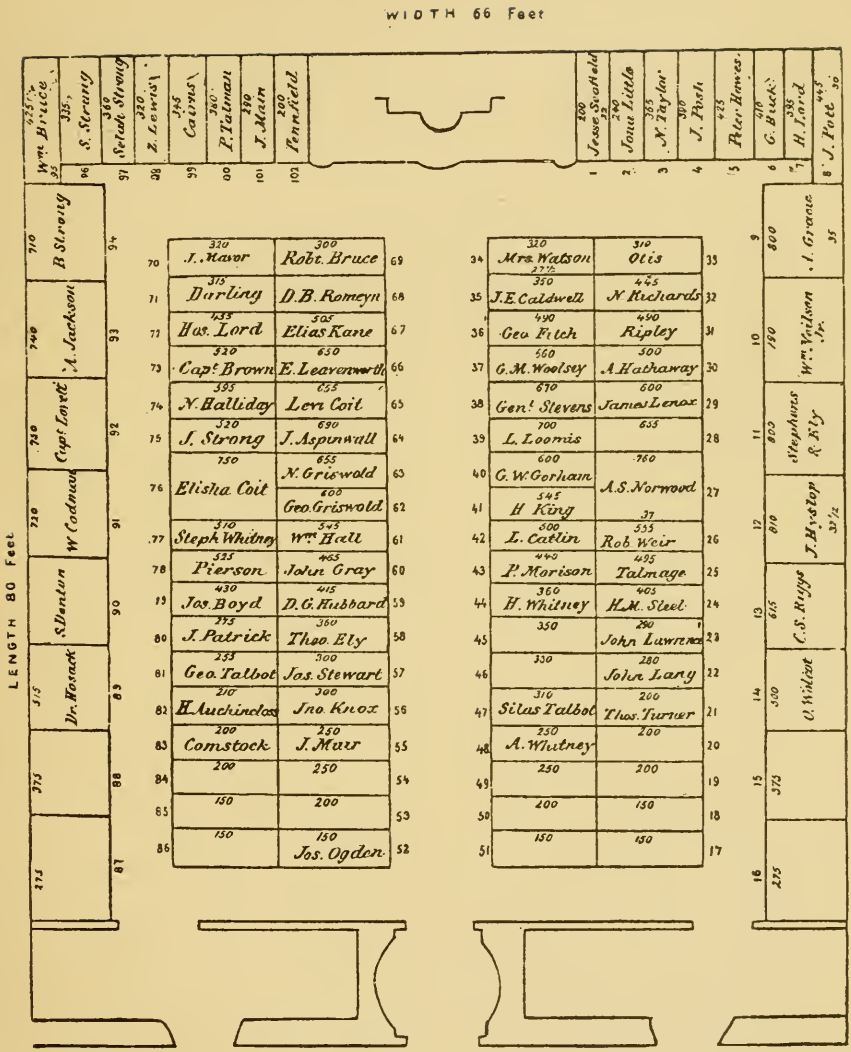
The same reasons that made it necessary to remove from Cedar Street, operated with greater urgency to demand another change of locality. A number of unsuccessful efforts had been made to obtain a pastor. Some of the members of the church, who had removed to the upper part of the city, had commenced efforts to build a church for their accommodation and for others who were disposed to join them. In the fall of 1850 a proposition was made to the Duane Street church to sell their edifice, and to unite in the enterprise, and give a call to their late pastor. This plan was adopted with great unanimity, the call was made and accepted, and measures were immediately taken to procure a site and erect a church. On the 12th of November, 1851, Rev. James W. Alexander, D. D., was installed pastor of the Duane Street church by the Presbytery of New York. The congregation met for public worship in the chapel of the University until the dedication of the new edifice on the corner of Fifth Avenue and Nineteenth Street, which took place December 19, 1852, and the corporate name was changed. Rev. Dr. Alexander was removed by death on the 31st of July, 1859, in the State of Virginia, whither he had gone for the benefit of his health.



INTERIOR OF CEDAR STREET PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

At a meeting of the congregation, held on the 8th of January, 1861, a call was made out for Rev. Nathan L. Rice, D. D., of Chicago, which was accepted. He was installed on the 27th of April, 1861, by the Presbytery of New York,

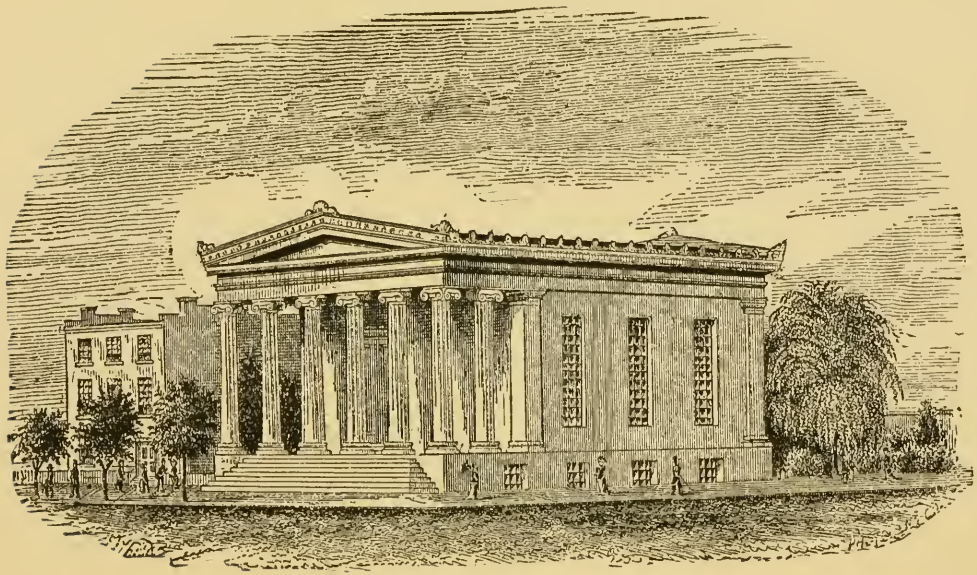
In consequence of impaired health, and by the advice of his physician, Dr. Rice tendered his resignation, which was accepted by the congregation at a meeting held on the 13th of March, 1867.

On the 31st of July, 1867, a meeting of the congregation was held, and a unanimous call was made to Rev. John Hall, D. D., of Dublin. This call was accepted, and on the 3d of November, 1867, Dr. Hall was installed by the Presbytery of New York, and he is still the pastor.

In the course of the following years, members of the congregation, it was found, were moving their residences up-town to an extent that suggested the need of another removal of the congregation. At the same time the accommodation of the church edifice did not meet the wants of the worshipers. Accordingly, on April 15, 1872, it was decided to erect another and larger church building, and ground was purchased for the present site. A building committee was appointed, consisting of Wm. Paton, R. L. Stuart, Robert Bonner, James Fraser, Harvey Fisk, John A. Stewart, and Moses G. Baldwin, under whose careful and efficient supervision the present church edifice, lecture-room, and Sunday-school rooms were completed.

The opening services were held on May 9, 1875, the pastor preaching in the morning, and the Moderator of the General Assembly in the afternoon. A most solemn farewell-meeting had been held in the old edifice on the Friday evening before.

The Building Committee had no sooner finished the edifice, than the congregation decided to pay the balance of the cost of site and buildings remaining after the sale of pews, which took place on May 17, 1875. The amount was subscribed in a short time, and entirely paid in June, 1877.



DUANE STREET CHURCH,
ERECTED 1835.

THE GENERAL WORK OF THE CONGREGATION.

A MEMBER of this church for more than fifty years, has been requested to furnish some reminiscences of its history, which, it is thought, would be of interest to those now connected with this church, and especially to those whose memory carries them back to its early history.

In the year 1807 the political contests of this country had become very animated, and, indeed, heated. The non-intercourse and embargo laws of the Democratic party, then in power, had greatly incensed those who were ranged under the Federal banner. The political feelings then entered into the family and church relations much more than in the present day. The First Church, then worshiping in Wall Street, was composed of persons of much prominence and influence in society, who were greatly divided on political questions. It was generally understood that the political opinions and preferences of many of the members of that congregation had much to do with the plan of starting a new church enterprise, which resulted in the establishment of the Cedar Street church. On the 5th of January, 1807, sixty-seven persons opened a subscription for the purchase of a site and the erection of a new Presbyterian Church in Cedar Street, between Nassau and William Streets. In the autumn of 1808 the Church was completed, and the pews were sold, repaying to the subscribers the amount of their subscriptions, with interest. It is believed that every one of those subscribers is dead. The only representatives of those persons now worshiping with us are Mrs. John Auchincloss, the daughter of Mr. Gurdon Buck; Mrs. Wm. Walker, the daughter of Mr. Robert M. Steel; and Mrs. Emily P. Woolsey, the widow of E. J. Woolsey, whose father, G. M. Woolsey, was an original subscriber, and bought pew No. 37 in the middle aisle. They are also the last of their family. In August, 1808, the Rev. John B. Romeyn, of Albany, was called to be their pastor. On the 9th November Mr. Romeyn was installed as pastor. The first members of the Church were twenty-eight in number. The only representatives of those first members now worshiping with us are the children of Mr. Hugh Auchincloss and Mr. Zechariah Lewis.

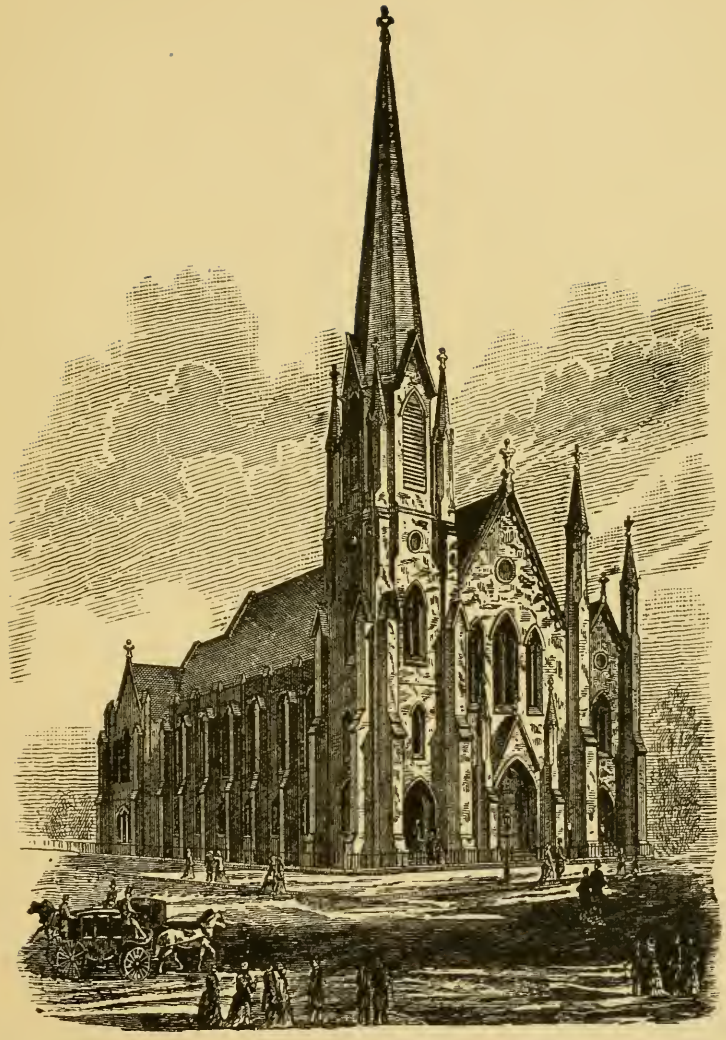
The Church took immediately an influential position among the churches of the city and of the land. Dr. Romeyn, as some now living can bear testimony, was a popular and useful minister, and he ministered to a large and appreciative congregation until the 22d February, 1825, when he entered into rest. On the 7th December, 1826, the Rev. Cyrus Mason, a graduate of Princeton Seminary, was ordained and installed as pastor of the church. In the year 1834 it was thought necessary to remove the Church to a new location, and a building committee was appointed, who were instructed to procure a site not above Chambers Street, as a higher location would be inconvenient to a majority of the congregation. Lots were purchased at the corner of Chambers and Chapel Streets, but on account of some plans then formed, it was thought best to sell the lots and buy others. It was finally arranged to purchase lots on Duane Street. The situation was, in some respects, objectionable, but a plan had been agreed upon to widen



FIFTH AVENUE AND NINETEENTH STREET CHURCH,

Duane Street on the hospital side, which would have benefited the property. For various reasons this plan was abandoned. The trustees entered upon the work of building a new church, and while it was being constructed, the congregation worshiped in the chapel of the Brick Church, located on the ground now occupied by the New York Times building. On the 13th August, 1835, the Rev. Cyrus Mason offered his resignation, which was accepted. Rev. George Potts, of Natchez, Miss., was called as pastor, and he accepted the call, and entered on his work at the completion of the building. On the 18th March, 1844, Dr. Potts resigned his position, and with a portion of the congregation, arranged to build a new church in the upper part of the city. The University Place Church was the result of this plan, leaving the Duane Street Church without a pastor.

On the 25th June, 1844, the congregation unanimously called Rev. James W. Alexander, D. D., as pastor, which call was accepted, and he was installed on the 3d October, 1844. In May, 1849, the General Assembly appointed him a Professor in Princeton Seminary, which he accepted, and the pastoral relation was dissolved by Presbytery on the 25th June, 1849.

The Church made several efforts to obtain a successor to Dr. Alexander without success. There were several reasons for this result. One was the location of the Church, which was becoming objectionable on account of its surroundings; and another was the increasing movement toward the upper part of the city of the families connected with the Church. While the pulpit thus continued vacant, a number of gentlemen commenced an effort to establish a new Presbyterian Church, to be located not above Twenty-third Street. After a considerable sum was subscribed, a suggestion was made to the Duane Street Church to sell their building and unite with the movers of the plan for a new church and call the Rev. Dr. Alexander to the pastorate. This suggestion meeting with the approval of the congregation, the call was given to Dr. Alexander, and accepted by him, and arrangements were made at once to purchase the lots at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Nineteenth Street, and the building was erected and occupied for the first time in December, 1852, and the pews were sold, realizing a sum sufficient to pay all the cost. While the Church was being built, Dr. Alexander visited Europe, at the request of the congregation. The history of the church from commencement of the second pastorate of Dr. Alexander to the present time is sufficiently stated on pages 12 and 15.

The Church supports three Mission stations ; one in King Street, one on Seventh Avenue, and one on East Fourteenth Street. These buildings are owned by the Church and cost about $100,000.

LIST OF MEMBERS.

JANUARY, 1882.

In preparing the list of members the following classification has been made:

1. Names of members who are now in attendance upon the Church services.

2. Names of members who are not in regular attendance, and who worship elsewhere.

3. Names of members not in attendance and whose addresses are unknown.

It is quite possible that some inaccuracies may be found in the list, notwithstanding the earnest effort of the Session to avoid them.

The Clerk of the Session addressed the following communication to all those enumerated in the second and third lists:

"Dear Friend:—The Session of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church think it is desirable that members who, in consequence of removal from the city, or for other reasons, are attending church elsewhere, should consider the wisdom of taking letters of dismissal to the congregation with which they are now worshiping.

"There are many valued members of this Church who are in this position, and the suggestion is made alike to all of them. It does not apply to those who intend to resume attendance with us.

"Do me the favor to reply, stating what your wishes are in this respect, and accept the Christian salutations of the Pastor, Dr. Hall, and members of the Session, which I am charged to extend to you. By order of the Session.

WILLIAM WALKER, Clerk."

No replies have been received from any of the persons on the third list.
